

Neil Haight Pro Bono Award

This memorial award is named in honor of Neil Haight, the Executive Director of Montana Legal Services Association for more than 30 years.

Through Neil's leadership, MLSA survived numerous attacks during his many years at its helm. His effort left a solid foundation which eventually led to the current MLSA structure as a statewide law firm. His optimism carried MLSA staff through the darkest years when many thought all hope of civil legal assistance to the poor was lost. Despite numerous and endless attacks, Neil never lost faith in the vision and goal of MLSA.

After his retirement in 2002, Neil remained the icon of MLSA until his death in 2008. His passion for justice and his compassion for Montanans living in poverty was a model many lawyers, both within and outside MLSA, in those early years of "legal aid" in Montana.

The Neil Haight Pro Bono Award recognizes a person who exemplifies Neil's legacy of providing outstanding legal services to Montanans living in poverty. The nominee is a lawyer, other individual or organization which has provided pro bono services to those in need in Montana. While the nominee may be a lawyer who has provided direct pro bono legal representation, he or she may also be a court employee, paralegal, psychologist, or social worker who has provided pro bono services in aid of direct pro bono legal representation in Montana.

Nominations are also accepted for law firms, teams of lawyers, and associations of Montana lawyers and pro bono programs receiving no form of compensation or academic credit for doing pro bono work and whose work was not a non-legal public service.

Attorney nominees must be admitted to practice in Montana. Nominees cannot be employees of organizations which provide free or low-cost services to the poor.

The Neil Haight Pro Bono Award is conferred periodically after review of all nominations, by the State Bar Justice Initiatives Committee. Individual or organizations which submit the nomination may submit more than one nominee.
