The Montana Rules for Admission to the State Bar of Montana require that you are certified by the Commission on Character & Fitness before you may sit for the bar exam or be admitted to the Montana Bar. The National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE) performs a background investigation on behalf of the Commission, but does not determine certification for admission to the Montana Bar. The Commission will not certify you for admission until receipt of the NCBE investigative summary, which takes at least 90 days after submission of your application. Therefore, it is critical you notify the NCBE and the Montana Bar Admissions Administrator of any change in information submitted on your application. Failure to provide complete information or notification to the Commission of changes since the time of application will delay, and could result in denial of, certification by the Commission on Character & Fitness. Incomplete applications will not be considered and complete applications do not assume certification.

The Montana Rules for Admission, the Rules of the Commission on Character and Fitness, and the Rules of the Board of Bar Examiners control questions related to the information listed on this form or any other matters related to admission to the Montana Bar. Any variation from the Rules must be requested by petition and ordered by the Montana Supreme Court. Links to the rules are available on the Montana Bar Admissions site, and additional information can be found on the National Conference of Bar Examiners website and the Clerk of the Montana Supreme Court website.
